THE GLOBAL STUDIES JOURNAL

Dear Melati Mediana Tobing,

Thank you for your submission. Your article is now in the peer-review process. Please note that if your article is accepted, we will require you to revise your reference list and internal citations so that they meet the guidelines outlined by the seventeenth edition of the Chicago Manual of Style. More information about Chicago Manual of Style referencing and detailed examples can be found here: <http://cgnetworks.org/support/chicago-manual-of-style-citations-quick-guide>

If you wish, some information on Common Ground's Citation Editing Services can be found here:

<http://cgnetworks.org/support/citation-editing-services>

You are not obligated to use our services, but we do ask that you reformat your references to follow the seventeenth edition of the Chicago Manual of Style guidelines upon final submission.

From this point until your article is published, you are eligible to be assigned as a peer reviewer. We appreciate your patience during this next step while we search for a suitable reviewer to evaluate your submission. As new reviewers are added to our network and as existing reviewers become available for new assignments, we will appoint reviewers to your submission.

You can check on the progress of your article at any time by visiting this link: http://cgpublisher.com/works/64195/actions/1/manage_workspace

Please note:

- Author(s) and coauthor(s) will be required to review at least three articles each.
- These articles may be from different Research Networks than your own.
- This responsibility will continue to apply to each article you submit in the future.

For further information on the peer-referee process please go to:

<http://cgnetworks.org/support/learn-more-about-the-article-publication-process>

If you have any questions or concerns, please let me know.

Best regards,
McCall Macomber
Head of Journal Production
